

Teacher of A Level Economics

Contract: Permanent

Part Time (approx. 0.3 of a timetable)

Salary: Teachers Pay scale / Upper Pay scale

Start date: September 2024

Closing date: Monday 20th May 2024

The Governors of The King David High School are seeking to appoint a well qualified, good honours graduate to teach Economics at A Level. The ideal candidate should have a real passion for their subject and be equipped with the skills to maximise outcomes for pupils.

At The King David High School we have introduced a range of faculties which share good practice, foster a sense of competition and work collaboratively to improve pupil outcomes whole school.

This is an exciting opportunity for a Teacher of Economics who has effectively demonstrated their ability to develop teaching and learning strategies across their department, engaged pupils both inside and outside the classroom and has consistently demonstrated improvements in student outcomes.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the safety and welfare of children. Successful applicants will be subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring check.

School overview

The King David High School is a warm and caring school, until recently, consistently ranked amongst the top performing non-selective schools in the country.

Based in Manchester, it is an Academy that educates children from the ages of 11 to 18. Our denomination is Jewish. At present, there are 780 students on roll.

Ofsted - July 2023

- ✓ Pupils' mutual respect, and their willingness to help each other out, underpins the strong feeling of community at The King David High School.
- ✓ Pupils are taught to be optimistic about their futures. They learn how to find solutions to the challenges that they may encounter.
- ✓ Pupils, and students in the sixth form, benefit from a rich, broad curriculum that sets them up well to accomplish their future goals. Pupils enjoy their learning. Most pupils live up to their teachers' high expectations of achievement and attain strong academic outcomes.
- ✓ Students in the sixth form achieve impressive A-level results.
- ✓ Pupils extend their skills and develop their independence through participating in a wide range of extra-curricular clubs, including orchestra, basketball and athletics. Pupils make an active contribution to the local community.
- ✓ Senior leaders have been instrumental in bringing about considerable change to address the previous weaknesses at this school. Their drive for improvement has been relentless.

Further details are available from the school website

www.kdhs.org.uk/vacancies

To explore the role further by visiting the school and talking to key staff please email the address below

vacancies@kdhigh.co.uk
